10/6 – Santee/Lakeside National Night Out Drive-Thru event. Details are pending.

4. Proposed Modifications for Community Response:

Mayor Minto expressed some ideas regarding the community response:

- Establish a subcommittee of COMPOC members to develop ideas to address diversity and inclusion and proposed programs.
- Create a COMPOC web page on the City website.

Marlene Best introduced Erica Hardy, who provided a brief PowerPoint presentation regarding internal City efforts towards unity and inclusion.

Ms. Hardy stated that the COMPOC web page will include subcommittee information and resources. The City is working to assist Santee businesses and farmers market vendors with CARES Act funding. The Santee magazine was created with the City's assistance to promote Santee businesses with a focus on unity and inclusion. The City's Envision Committee assisted with the new City brand – do more, due east, and looked into the history of the City and previous perceptions of the community.

The Board members had a brief discussion and responded to questions.

5. COMMUNICATIONS FROM THE PUBLIC

Statements were provided by: Steve Stelman, Tony Renna, Janet McLees, Kimberly Bruderer

6. Communication from Committee and Staff members –

David Shorey inquired whether the subcommittee would be established before the next COMPOC meeting and whether they would provide a report.
